- "Pillars of the Earth" by Ken Follett

"Amazing depiction of life in the 13th century. 1,000 pages. Lots of sleepless nights required to finish it, but it's worth the effort."

Planning to read

- "Lincoln President-Elect" by Harold Holzer

"Lincoln faced grave challenges as he assumed the presidency in 1860, as does President-elect Obama. It will be interesting to make the comparisons. What can history teach us?"
